If you answered no to the question about US citizenship, does your immigration status prevent you from lawfully possessing a firearm under 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(5)(A) or (B)?

To be eligible for POST certification, you must be able to lawfully possess a firearm so that you can complete the required firearms skills training (see C.R.S. § 24-31-305(1)(a)(II) and POST Rule 12(a)(V)(B)).

Under 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(5)(A), you are prohibited from possessing a firearm if you are unlawfully present in the United States. However, you may qualify for an exception under 18 U.S.C. § 925(a)(1) if you are currently employed by a law enforcement agency and that agency's policy authorizes you to carry a firearm for purposes of academy training. Please note that to be hired by a law enforcement agency, you must have legal employment authorization. There are limited categories of immigration status that allow an individual who is unlawfully present to obtain employment authorization, such as DACA recipients, refugees, and asylees.

Under 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(5)(B), you are prohibited from possessing a firearm if you are present in the United States on a non-immigrant visa. To determine whether your visa is classified as an immigrant or non-immigrant visa, please refer to 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(26). If you are present in the United States on a non-immigrant visa, you may qualify for certain exceptions under 18 U.S.C. § 922(y)(2) that would allow you to lawfully possess a firearm. You may also qualify for the exception under 18 U.S.C. § 925(a)(1) if you are currently employed by a law enforcement agency and that agency's policy authorizes you to carry a firearm for purposes of academy training.

This is a complex area of law, and we recommend you consult your attorney with any questions. We cannot give you legal advice. We will not share your specific immigration status with the hiring agency or training academy unless you (the applicant) authorize it or have already shared that information with the hiring agency or training academy. However, we must inform hiring agencies and/or training academies whether you are eligible for POST certification. We will not share your personal identifying information for the purpose of federal immigration enforcement, in compliance with Colorado SB 21-131.
